

Henriette. She had one great love.

Not for any man...

Non... nor woman...

...but for Bosmelet...

...her childhood home.

Henriette had only once flirted with another love.

And that was when she was 8 years old.

She had been taken to the circus. Fernando in Paris.

There she saw The Dame Serpent.

She was mesmerized with the act.

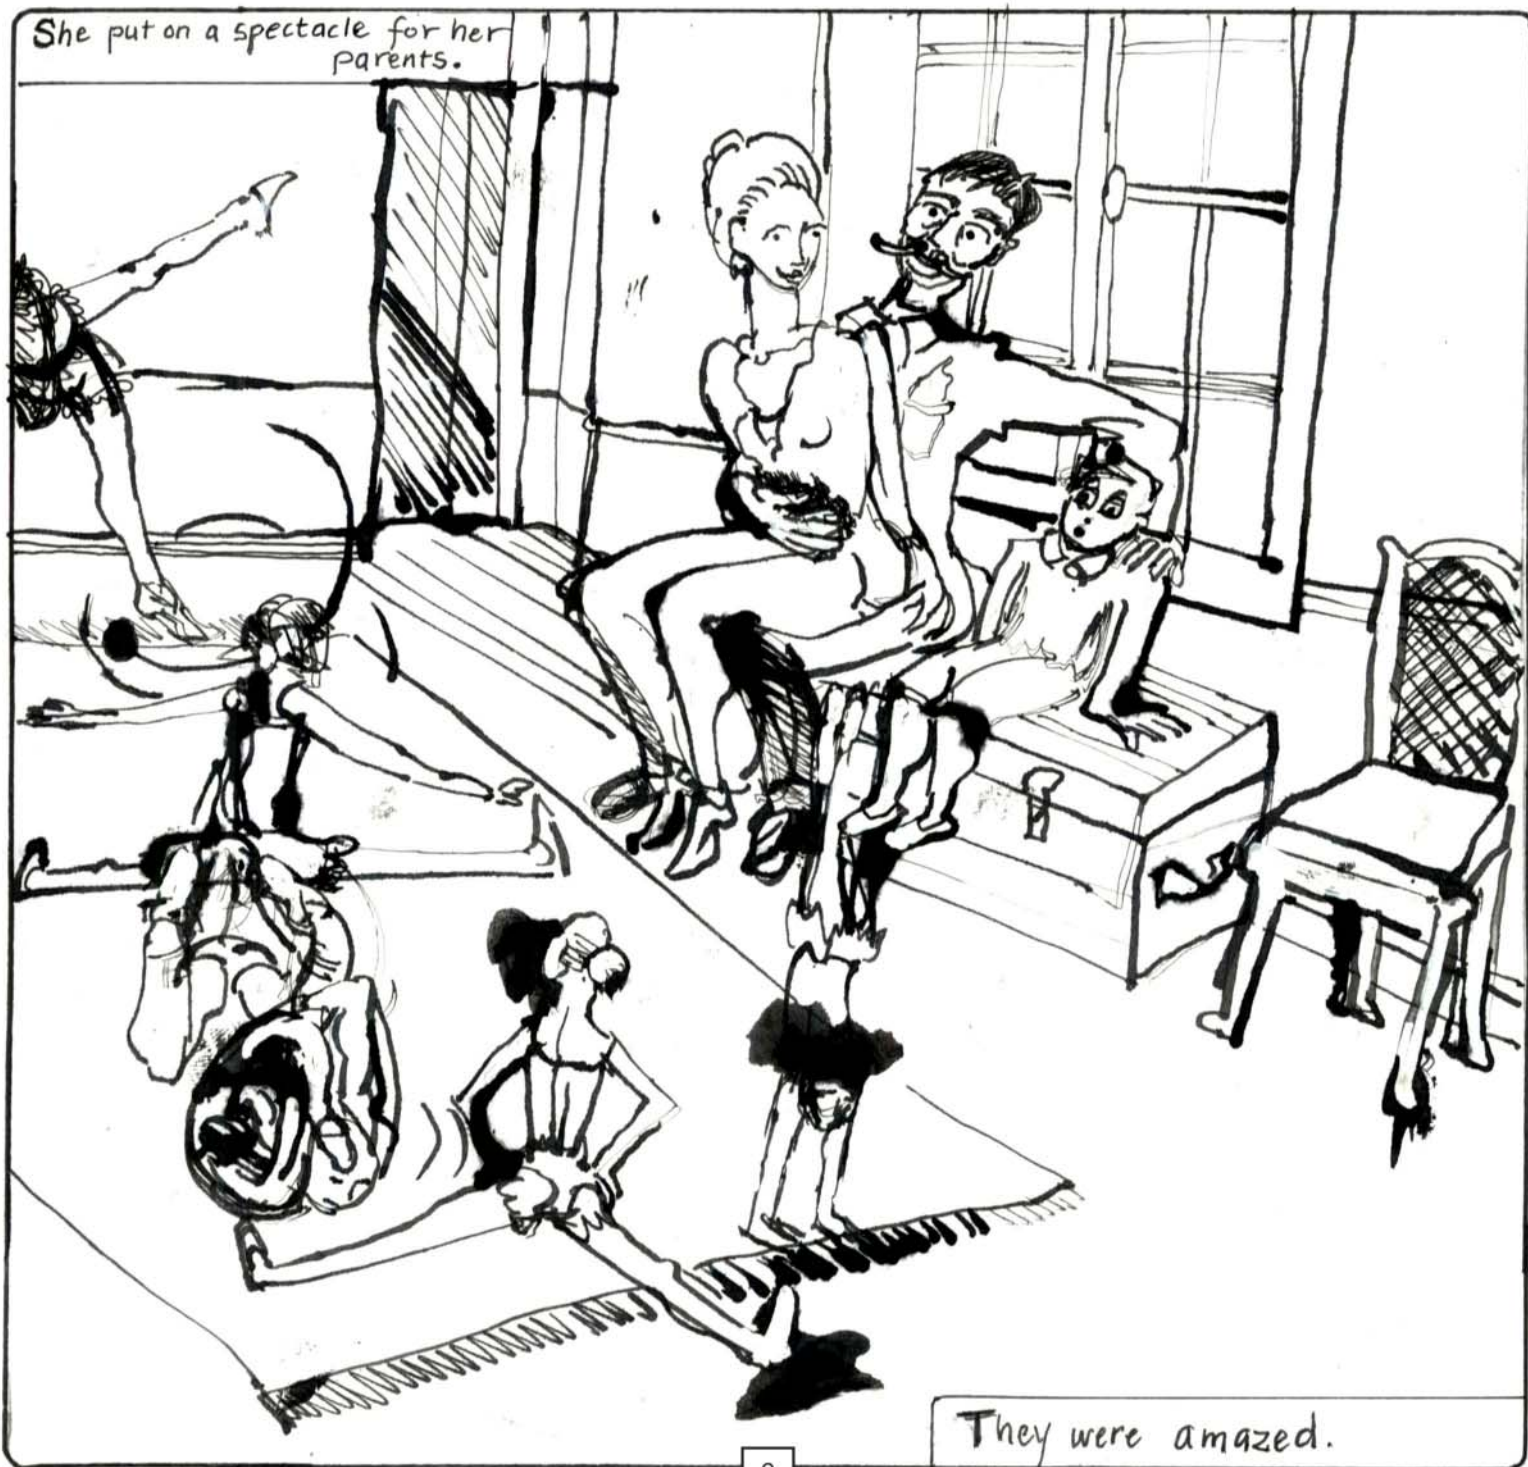

May I join the circus, Papa?

Secretly...

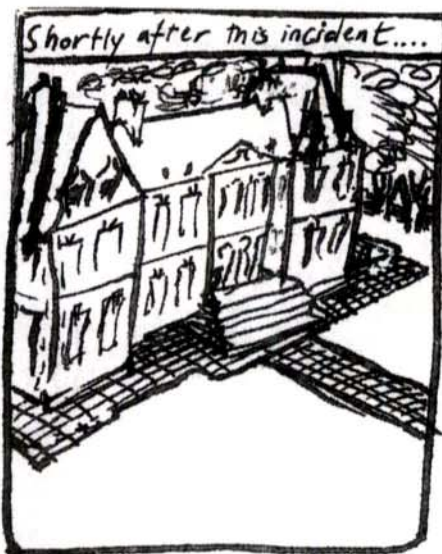

They were amazed.

What happened to Henriette, the supple young woman? She had many wartime adventures of her own. My sister and I have only one memory of our great-grandmother. One day at Bosmelet . . .
